Mashle OP 2

Cheated, gifted, beat and make ‘em wanted
Block it, stall and I’ll hit you where you missed it Strange or an oddity, from another world, is it shifting Couldn’t be, everything is twisted Ay, chasing my rival to the end, I’m Wow, chasing my rival to the end, it’s Killing me, digging it, swarming like an insect Really, man? Everything is really what we’re seeing, then?

It’s genuine, it’s genuine
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Bling, bang bang
Bling bang bang born
Bling, bang bang
Bling bang bang born
When you’re out in the spotlight, a fire run free
They’re begging you to stop ‘fore you even bust knees
That road up to the top makes you very happy
You knew it all along, you’re the peak of the peak
You shed your old skin, that past you don’t need (Bling, bling, bling)
Don’t need your seven pretty lights, I’m undefined
So take your ice, man, I’m icy (Icy)
Living fine though I’m dodging that heat
Never minding the noise got me very happy
Oh, now I did it…
Fast ‘fore I even could see, now I’m rolling in it
Stacked with my boys and family (happy)
It’s tough, you can leave it to me
Start a riot, man, I’m hyped for a future unleashed (Bang, bang, bang)
No lesson to teach, no books here to read
Just pride and a guttural scream

(listen)

Mirror, mirror on the wall, you listening?
Who’s the best? I’m the best!
Oh yeah
Clearer, I can see the crown adorning my head
To the next, to the best we’re set
Now singing

Kimetsu no Yaiba

Finally, you've given me
a reason to be strong and we'll stand Hand-in-Hand
Till the end!

As my body's shaking
The future is out there waiting, for me to grasp the light that's trembling just like my hand
I gotta keep it safe from fading that's all that I want.

The subtle scent of midnight (I'll spend all thirty nights)
I glare up at the stars ( staring into the sky)
The path I see before me
I know only I can change it
That's all that I need.

Finally, you've given me
a reason to be strong and we'll stand Hand-in-Hand
Till the end!

Despite the past mistakes we can't erase.
A future that we can't escape.
As long as I can always keep you safe
I've gotta be strong, so to your name I'll fight through pain

This world can beat me down a hundred times but into the light I'll always rise a lotus flower so pure right up to the end until it blooms
a bright red..

Fire Force Inferno

A light unto my darkening
Illuminate the path
Of old familiar days
Now I stay content living a dream
Am I becoming lazy
Living careless and free?
It's a light unto my darkening
What happened to the comfort
Of the streets that we walked?
Now the cold at time is Worse than it seems
But we can light a fire
And we'll fight it
Now we can find a way
Through the fire and the flames
Now it's burning in my heart
Just like a melody
Now there is no forever
I've been told we'll fade away
So laugh in every day you get
Don't let it go to waste
So if your light is fading
From the shadow of a doubt
We'll light the sky
With our Inferno

We'll keep marching right until
Our fire's burning out

Chain Saw Man Iris Out

Drop it drop it drop it, morality deep inside my brain is yelling "stop" but I'm too stupid to obey
Darling, baby, darling, I love you like crazy and its sparking bright and loud like a new philosophy

Looking upward at me, give me those eyes
Wanna break the law, see, taking our time
Scattering delusion, everything had worn thin
No one is to blame aside from you for your sin
Tired of being lovesick, carry this weight now my body and my heart will fall apart at this rate
My carotid arteries spew an "I love you" then, IRIS OUT

And I don't know what I'm feeling, I don't know why im in pain and these sugar crystals melt, I feel my stomach coming up
Pupils dilated, I'm drowning til I die
In this world you are the only answer for my cries

Darling x8

JJK Specialz

“U R MY SPECIAL”

Come on, let’s dance at the edge of all we can’t deny Tokyo’s frontline, oh the city of life
Deep down inside, in the space between the end and the light
Show me that side that seems so dark and blind

“i luv u 6a6y”
Singing on with a heavy beat

No matter how much we see how foolish it seems to be Each gesture and each fold stirs my heart that was once cold
We’re running on till it’s uncontrolled

“U R MY SPECIAL”

Won’t you make this right while bringing chaos anew?
Eat it up, all you find, all that you’re having tonight
Like a maze for life, this rendezvous
It’s always twisting deep inside, “U R MY SPECIAL”

One Piece OP1

Come aboard and bring along all your hopes and dreams!
Together we will find everything that we're lookin' for,
ONE PIECE!
Compass left behind, it'll only slow us down,
Your heart will be your guide, raise the sail, and take the helm,
That legendary place, that the end of the map reveals,
Is only legendary 'till someone proves it real,
Through it all, through all the troubles and through the heartache, and through the pain
Know that I will be there to stand by you, just like I know you'll stand by me!

Come aboard and bring along all your hopes and dreams!
Together we will find everything that we're lookin' for,
There's always room for you, if you wanna be my friend!
We are, we are on the cruise!
We are!
